

Intern Application and Selection Process

The CTE Intern Program allows more advanced CTE students to receive more rigorous theatrical training while functioning as salaried employees of the CTE staff. Interns are given training in child development, teaching methods and all aspects of theatre and are then given the opportunity to utilize this training by working during the CTE workshops as teachers, directors and technicians. Other responsibilities may include creating, directing and/or choreographing original pieces for Arts Festival productions, attending briefing meetings, leading daily circle groups and classes and role-modeling the CTE philosophy. Interns are required to enroll in the CTE Intensive workshop and to participate in master classes and training sessions before CTE starts. Students applying for the intern program should plan on participating for more than one year, as the learning is a building process.
