

Creative Theatre Experience The Cue Line!

2004 - Fall Edition

INTRODUCING "SHOWCASE SPOTLIGHT"!

CTE is introducing a second showcase production called the "Showcase Spotlight". The workshop structure will remain the same, but will have two productions – one for the traditional showcase musical and one for the Spotlight show. Students in both productions will still shared the same master classes and prep classes. The Intensive Workshop will be retired.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS - NEW 2004 SUMMER WORKSHOP DATES!!!

As you can see, we have a very exciting season planned. Be sure to enroll early. Our workshops filled up quickly last year and we could not accept all applicants.

- And more!

Please let us know if you would like to be on our volunteer list. Just provide us with your contact information either by calling our message phone or sending us an email

2004 SUMMER WORKSHOPS - A GREAT SUCCESS!

We put the wraps on a very successful summer season. We had great recitals, art work, dance, music in all the workshops, plus wonderful productions! It was a great experience for all.

Showcase culminated in the production of a musical comedy "42nd Street!" Set in 1933, it highlighted all the fun of 'putting-on-a-show' on Broadway with one great Warren-Dubin number after another, making it a feast of titanium-plated hits. Written by Rian James and James Seymour.

Arts Festival culminated in an original production, titled: "We're Puttin' on a Show!" Written by our own CTE Interns - skits about producing a show. The work shop also offered other fun courses, including mime, music makers, rhythmic movement, world dance, beginning characterization, and more.

Intensive culminated in the Tony-award winning musical "Pippin". Set in the 9th Century Holy Roman Emperor, follows the life of Pippin, son of Charlemagne, who wonders how to find real meaning in his life, dabbling in war, sex, and politics before finally finding love. Written by Roger O. Hirson and Stephen Schwartz
